Behind the Scenes:
Non-Stop, Year-Round at the Soo Locks

November 19th
5:30 - 7:00 pm
at the Beaverton Library

Go behind the scenes at the Soo Locks with exclusive stories and photos. Discover the vital, year-round work that goes beyond the locks—from generating electricity to maintaining federal harbors. Plus, enjoy incredible bonus photos of Great Lakes freighters!

Michelle Briggs has served as the Chief Park Ranger at the Soo Locks since 2009. A native Michigander and self-proclaimed "boatnerd," she holds a Master's degree in Great Lakes Maritime History and Museum Studies. Today, Michelle leads interpretation efforts and researches and designs exhibits for the Soo Locks Visitor Center.

106 Tonkin St., Beaverton | 989-435-3981